AGPA Mission Statement

The American Group Psychotherapy Association is a dynamic, thriving community of mental health professionals of various disciplines dedicated to advancing knowledge and research, and providing quality training in group psychotherapy and other group interventions, consultation and direct services nationally and internationally.

Background

Founded in 1942, AGPA serves as the national voice specific to the interests of group psychotherapy. Its 2,000+ members and 21 Affiliate Societies provide a wealth of professional, educational, and social support for group psychotherapists in the United States and abroad.

AGPA CONNECT/Annual Meeting

AGPA Connect 2020, our Annual Meeting, offers participants from diverse clinical disciplines the opportunity to advance their knowledge and skills in group psychotherapy and related fields. Outcomes derived from AGPA Connect include: development of new clinical approaches; refinement of therapeutic methods; exchange of clinical and empirical knowledge with colleagues; exposure to current research and theory; and the opportunity to participate in a peer support network.

AGPA Connect draws more than 1,000 mental health professionals from all over the country and other nations. It offers more than 200 events including Institutes, workshops, panel discussions, paper presentations, and special interest group meetings. The theme of AGPA Connect 2020 is Group: Growth and Renewal.
